Graduate Student Position Announcement

1794 Scholars Program

The Honors & Scholars Programs is looking for a graduate student to assist with the 1794 Scholars Program. The 1794 Scholars Program is a two-year program focused on holistic student engagement through four key pillars: academic engagement, global and cultural awareness, campus involvement, and the Volunteer spirit. The program launched in the fall of 2017 and will have its second entering class this fall. The graduate student assistant would work closely with the program’s Assistant Director and other Honors & Scholars staff to assist with programming and advising.

Position Responsibilities
• Design and facilitating workshops
• Develop programming for 1794 students
• Advise students on completing program requirements
• Assist with curriculum development, assessment, and semesterly reviews of student progress

Required Qualifications
• Must be enrolled in a graduate program at the University of Tennessee by the fall semester of 2018
• Available to start early August
• Strong written and oral communication skills
• Passion for student success and helping students engage with the UT and Knoxville community
• Flexible schedule with availability on nights and weekends

Preferred Qualifications
• Experience with event planning and/or academic advising
• Available for 1 week of training in late May or June

Additional Information
This is a 9-month position with a salary of $15 an hour for 20 hours a week.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS POSITION DOES NOT COME WITH A TUITION WAIVER

Interested students should submit a resume and cover letter to the 1794 Scholars Program Assistant Director, Virginia Stormer (vmurphy3@utk.edu). Position will remain open until filled.